B-Street Project Update

We're now in the critical underground phase—the backbone of the entire project. This stage includes site clearing, excavation, and installing essential utilities like water, sewer, drainage, electrical, and communication lines.

After stabilizing and compacting the soil, we begin constructing the foundation system, including footings, piers, and slabs. This phase is key to ensuring long-term structural integrity and supporting all future vertical construction.

After years of dedicated effort, the new Marysville 2050 General Plan is nearly complete.

The Marysville 2050 General Plan outlines the City's vision and long-term strategy for growth and development through 2050. It serves as a blueprint for land use, housing, transportation, economic development, public services, infrastructure, environmental conservation. Required by state law, the Plan provides a consistent physical policy framework to guide development and key decisions on zoning, annexations, and capital improvements. To support this, the City is also developing a Downtown Specific Plan aimed at revitalizing the downtown area with new housing, business opportunities, and community investment.

82nd Marysville Stampede

The Cattle Drive

The cattle made their way from the Yuba City down Bridge St., crossed the 5th St. Bridge to D St., and eventually arrived at Cotton Rosser Arena at Riverfront Park in Marysville. Spectators saw longhorn steers, horses, wagons, tractors, rodeo queens, cowboys, and local area 4-H and FFA clubs. This free event was a great showcase of Western heritage and community spirit!

Sodbusters

Sodbusters remains the only fundraiser of the Rotary Club of Marysville. This year's event lived up to its reputation.

The sixth annual Sodbusters event featured a delicious dinner, live and silent auctions, raffles, and the always entertaining mechanical bull!

Topping off the evening with dancing till midnight to Left of Centre, the house band from Toby Keith's I Love This Bar and Grill in Las Vegas.

The Rodeo

This year's Marysville Stampede shattered records as rodeo fans gathered at Beckwourth Riverfront Park and the Cotton Rosser Arena and Pavilion to celebrate one of the region's most cherished traditions.

From rodeo events to motocross, the Stampede was packed with nonstop, high-energy entertainment. Cotton Rosser, Friends of the Marysville Stampede, and the Flying U Rodeo Co pulled out all the stops this year!

Farm 2 Fork Dinner A Terra Madre Americas Event

At the end of September, we had the incredible honor of co-hosting hosts the inaugural Farm-to-Fork Dinner, a signature event of Terra Madre Americas, alongside Blue Zones Project and the Marysville Business Alliance. This event was more than a delicious evening, it was a celebration of our community, culture, and commitment to building a stronger local food system.

With a showstopping meal prepared by celebrity Chef Yia Vang, the dinner highlighted the power of our local food system. Fresh, locally sourced produce from small-scale farmers made this event possible, showcasing the importance of supporting our regional growers.

We also shared our vision for a future food hub in partnership with the Yuba Sutter Food Bank—a centralized space that would aggregate, distribute, and market locally produced food. This initiative would expand access to healthy food and support farmers by connecting them directly with consumers.

The evening also honored the rich contributions of our Hmong farming community, whose deep agricultural knowledge and resilience continue to nourish our region in meaningful ways.

This dinner told a story—of land, culture, and community coming together to create a more equitable and sustainable food system for all.

Thank you to everyone who joined us on September 27.

Your presence made the evening truly unforgettable.

Public Works

We're excited to introduce Jeramy Chapdelaine, the newest member of our leadership team as Director of Public Works!

Jeramy was born in Placerville, CA, and lived there through 8th grade before his family moved to the Oroville area. He and his wife, Amáni, are raising five sons, as well as the youngest member of their family — their daughter.

Jeramy is deeply passionate about community involvement. He enjoys volunteering and finding ways to give back wherever he can. His favorite hobbies revolve around the outdoors — whether it's hiking, fishing, hunting, or camping. His family also spends much of their time traveling to support their kids in sports.

One of Jeramy's proudest personal achievements was completing a full rehabilitation of a historic building in Willows, CA — a true labor of love that blends vision, hard work, and community pride.

In his professional role, Jeramy finds the most satisfaction in seeing the progress and positive changes that public works projects bring to the city. As Director, he's excited to collaborate with all City departments to deliver impactful projects and high-quality services for residents.

Fun fact: Jeramy is an avid disc golfer who hits the course whenever he can — and while he's not on the pro circuit yet, he's always improving and having a blast doing it!

Preserving our Historical Cemetery

A big Thank You to Friends for the Preservation of Yuba County History, a group of volunteers who've spent over 15 years caring for the Historic Marysville City Cemetery.

Every week, FPYCH gathers to mow, weed, water, plant, and restore this sacred space. It's hard work, especially in spring when the rain brings endless weeds—but it's work they love. Because this cemetery isn't just a place of rest; it's a place of memory.

Through fundraisers and hands-on care, The Preservation repairs headstones, stabilizes monuments, and make sure the stories of Yuba County's past are never forgotten.
